REBOOKING, CANCELLATIONS & REFUNDS -I requested that Miller Travel Company, make one or more travel bookings on my behalf, as well as on behalf of my family. Miller Travel Company, its contractors. As the worldwide COVID-19 coronavirus pandemic remains ongoing at this time, I acknowledge that for this reason, and other reasons not reasonably foreseeable at this time, these travel plans may be interrupted or canceled by the supplier that is providing them, a government entity or other third party over which Miller Travel Company has no control. Suppliers have their own contracts covering cancellation penalties and other terms and conditions, and you may be bound by those contracts regardless of whether you receive notice of their terms. For your protection, we strongly recommend that you purchase travel protection.

WAIVER of LIABILITY- COVID-19, has been declared a worldwide pandemic by the World Health Organization. COVID-19 is reported to be contagious. The exact methods of spread and contraction are unknown, and evidence has shown that COVID-19 can cause serious and potentially life-threatening illness and even death.

NEW: EFFECTIVE JAN 26- On January 12, 2021, CDC issued an order requiring all air passengers arriving to the US from a foreign country to get tested no more than 3 days before their flight departs. Travelers must provide proof of the negative test or documentation showing they've recovered from COVID-19 in the last 90 days. This must be shown the airline before boarding the flight returning to the US. This Order will go into effect on January 26, 2021. For more information, visit:
